Experience Britain's natural beauty with adventures in the wild – without compromising on comfort.

Discover unique places to press pause on the relentless pace of modern life and fully immerse yourself in nature. You'll find the perfect place to retreat and unwind with this carefully curated collection of holiday homes, from an architectural eco-lodge in a private woodland near Hastings to an off-grid sanctuary on the Welsh border.

With properties in some of the most astounding areas of natural beauty across Britain, they are perfectly placed for exploring and provide a welcoming retreat at the end of a long day, with rustic-chic interiors and cocooning comforts such as hot tubs, log burners, pizza ovens and hammocks.

Key selling points:

Holly Ferrier is a British interiors and travel photographer whose work has featured in numerous publications.

Full of ideas for both those visiting Britain and residents wanting to discover more.

Featuring 40 of the most exciting and unusual hideaways in England, Scotland and Wales.
