A collection of beautiful and unusual contemporary photography of trees.

We all walk past trees every day. But do we really stop and look? In a fast-changing world, it is more important than ever to consider our relationship with nature. This book brings together the world's best contemporary photography of trees, encouraging us to reconnect with the wisdom of these ancient, life-sustaining plants. The images in this exquisitely bound book have a strong slant towards newer, more unusual projects that capture a wealth of forms, landscapes and ecosystems.

Featuring: Paul Hart, David Spero, Sue Bailey, Marc Alcock, Yoshinori Mizutani, Anna Beeke, Daniel Ballesteros, Myoung Ho Lee, Marc Wendelski, Sabine Bungert and Stefan Dolfen, Richard Mosse, Beth Moon, David Ellingsen, Christoph Franke, Giorgio Majno and Oddina Pittatore, J. John Priola, Nicholas JR White, Carolyn Monastra, Leticia Valverdes, M'hammed Kilito, Robert Voit, Oilivia Lavergne, Alexandre Miguel Maia and Einar Örn.

Sophie Howarth is an artist, writer and teacher. She was co-founder of The School of Life and a former curator at Tate Modern. She is the author of several books including Street Photography Now and The Mindful Photographer, both published by Thames & Hudson.

Hoxton Mini Press is a small indie publisher based in East London. They are dedicated to making collectable photography books that are accessible, affordable and playful, and believe that as the world goes more online beautiful books should be cherished.
